Virtual Advocacy Day Participation Disclaimer

All Virtual Advocacy Day video, chat and content will be recorded. By participating in this event, you consent to being recorded, whereas your name, image, voice, chat transcript, and likeness may be included in any potential subsequent publication and dissemination of these recordings and content for further education, advocacy and marketing efforts.

To ensure a successful event, we ask that all discussions remain civil and on topic and avoid controversial statements or topics, including religion and politics. A diverse audience is beneficial to the advocacy community, and we ask all attendees to participate in positive discussions that may include respectful disagreements. Additionally, to protect and respect all parties, please do not provide any legal or medical advice during discussions.

If you engage in discussion in these manners, or any other inappropriate, inflammatory, or abusive discussion, GCDD and its contractors have the right to remove controversial content, and you may be removed from the Virtual Advocacy Day event.
